DETAILED ACTIONDrawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the "rectangular to polar converter" in claim 2 and "mixer" in claim 4 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 2817

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 2, it is not clear which "rectangular to polar converter" is intended.

Regarding claim 4, it is not clear which "mixer" is intended.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 3, 5, 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Pehlke et al. (6,738,432).

Regarding claims 1, 8, Pehlke et al. (Figs. 1, 3-5, 9) disclose an amplifier circuit comprising: an amplitude modulation circuit (20) which can be read as an amplitude mapping circuit, wherein the schematic of amplitude modulation circuit (20) shown in Fig. 3 having selection signal (SEL) may be an n-bit binary signal; and a plurality of amplifiers (14) coupled to amplitude modulation circuit (20), wherein the binary signal is transmitted to the plurality of amplifiers for gain control.

Art Unit: 2817

Regarding claim 3, Fig. 9, modulator (116) uses the phase information signal to modulate a carrier frequency signal, thus generating a carrier frequency signal having the desired phase modulation information, see col. 10, lines 38-46.

Regarding claim 5, wherein the amplitude modulation circuit (20) shown in Fig. 3 including lossy modulator (34) which comprises control circuit (50) capable of providing a gain control source claimed having the function thereof.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 4, 6, 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Pehlke et al.

Art Unit: 2817

Pehlke et al. disclose the claimed invention except having claimed mixer and input matching circuit.

Regarding claim 4 (mixer), it is considered within the level of ordinary skill in the art, see page 4, lines 28-30 of applicant, which stated "those of ordinary skill in the art will realize that other methods of modulation are equally as applicable (such as up conversion with mixer(s)).

Regarding claim 6 (input matching circuit), it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have provided an input matching circuit to correspond with the output matching circuit (18) of Pehlke et al. since such as addition would have provided input impedance matching between the amplifiers (14) and the input.

Regarding claim 7, see rejected claim 5.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The additional references (Holden et al. (6,411,655); Ghanadan et al. (6,639,463); Schell et al. (6,751,265)) show further analogous prior art circuitry.

These arts are deemed relevant and should be carefully reviews before any amendment is filed.
